

Researcher Resources

1

Once you have logged into MyHud, navigate to My research either by using the tile on the home page or the menu bar at the top.

2

The screenshot shows the 'My Research' dashboard with various tiles and callout boxes:

- Your research information. Points to the 'My research information' section at the top.
- Hints and tips for new researchers. Points to the 'Researching from home' tile.
- Print credit balance and top up information. Points to the 'Print credit' tile.
- Information regarding ethics, research methods and plagiarism. Points to the 'PGR programme handbook' tile.
- Submit your progress report online in Brightspace. Points to the 'Progress report submission' tile.
- Submit your thesis to Turnitin via Brightspace. Points to the 'Submit my thesis' tile.
- Everything you need to study off campus. Points to the 'PGR regulations' tile.
- Digital collection of all the University's research outputs. Points to the 'Research repository' tile.
- News and events. Points to the 'News and events' tile.
- PGR Handbook, Regulations and University policies. Points to the 'PGR programme handbook' and 'PGR regulations' tiles.
- University news, events and social media. Points to the 'News and events' tile and the social media icons at the bottom.
- Your contact details. Points to the 'My details' tile.
- Your research contacts. Points to the 'My contacts' tile.
- Research news and events. Points to the 'News and events' tile.

3

Researching from home

Everything you need to complete your research off campus. Access to your personal storage, Uni desktop, with free office 365 software for researchers. There is also access to Summon and the University repository.

4

5

News and events

Develop your skills by attending events and entering competitions

Events include concerts, public lectures and conferences.

Celebrate free cultural events from all over the world.

University news and events specific to the school that your research is associated to.

Quarterly magazine with articles from your fellow researchers.

Students' Union events specifically for PGR's.

Submit an article on the PGR blog and start conversations with fellow researchers.

Articles submitted from Masters and PhD students.

V2

